is in excess of ten years. There is therefore a rebuttable presumption against defendant as to both dangerousness and flight risk, under 18 U.S.C. §3142(e).

- 2. Defendant does not have a stable employment or residence history. He has family in the area but does not have a close relationship with them. His lengthy criminal history includes numerous drug charges with some history of failing to appear as recently as May 2008. There is information indicating serious drug addiction problems.
- 3. Taken as a whole, the record does not effectively rebut the presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the (1) Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and
- The clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to (4) counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States
